

This financial statement must include the financial activity of the person required to file the statement and the financial activity of his spouse and dependent children over which he had actual control for the preceding calendar year (this means the financial activities in property of the registrant's spouse and dependent children where the registrant exercises actual control over such activities. Op. Tex. Att'y Gen. No. H-269 (1974)). A person's natural child, adopted child, or stepchild is his or her "dependent child" if the person provides over 50 percent of the child's support during the calendar year. Part I. Retainers

Identify any person or other organization from which you or a business in which you have a substantial interest² have received a fee as a retainer for future services in case of need (as opposed to a fee for services on a matter specified at the time of contracting for the fee). Report only retainer fees in which the amount of work performed does not equal or exceed the value of the retainer during the reporting period. Also include retainer fees for which no services have been performed. Op. Tex. Att'y Gen. No. H-269 (1974). Specify if the fee was received by you or by a business in which you have a substantial interest. Indicate the appropriate category of value for each retainer fee. [Texas Government Code § 572.023(b)(1)]

⁷ A benefit is anything reasonably regarded as pecuniary gain or pecuniary advantage, including benefit to any other person in whose welfare the beneficiary has a direct and substantial interest. Section 36.01(5), Penal Code.

Section 36.10 provides that the gift prohibitions set out in Sections 36.08 (Gift to Public Servant) and 36.09 (Offering Gift to Public Servant) of the Penal Code do not apply to a benefit to a public servant required to file a statement under Chapter 572, Texas Government Code or a report under Title 15, Election Code, that is derived from a function in honor or appreciation of the recipient if the benefit and the source of any benefit in excess of $50 is reported in the statement and the benefit is used solely to defray the expenses that accrue in the performance of duties or activities in connection with the office which are nonreimbursable by the state or political subdivision.

A benefit reported as a contribution by the officeholder on a sworn statement under Title 15 of the Election Code need not be reported again here.

VERIFICATION

I do solemnly swear that the foregoing Financial Statement, filed herewith, is in all things true and correct, and fully shows all information required to be reported by me pursuant to Texas Government Code, Chapter 572.
